

Character Sketch

Villain Name: The Plumber

Animation Cel

Character Name: Angus Flushman

Background:

Angus Flushman was called to an AirBnB on a plumbing job described as a severely clogged toilet. Upon arrival, he lifted the lid on the toilet to discover a large amount of excrement. Before he could react, a small explosive released sending excrement all over Angus and the environment.

How He Drives People Away:

The Plumber wears a plunger on his head and carries a dirty toilet brush. He floats like a green apparition through the air until he catches his target. He uses the plunger to pin his target and then “scrubs” them vigorously with the toilet brush.
